

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Medical progress now being made against cancer already has helped to restore many of the citizens of South Dakota to soundness and health; and,

WHEREAS, The citizens of South Dakota are becoming increasingly aware of the ways in which they can minimize the threat of cancer to themselves; and,

WHEREAS, In spite of these advances much yet remains to be done in the areas of research, public and professional education, service to cancer patients and patient rehabilitation; and,

WHEREAS, During the month of April, which is observed by Act of Congress and Presidential Proclamation as "Cancer Control Month" when public attention is focused on the cancer problem in every state of the Union; and,

WHEREAS, it is during "Cancer Control Month" that the American Cancer Society conducts its annual educational and fund raising Cancer Crusade; and,

WHEREAS, This lifesaving effort of the Society is joined each year by thousands of South Dakota volunteers:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of April, 1982, as in South Dakota, and in so doing urge all citizens to heed cancer's early warning signs and respond generously to the American Cancer Society's Cancer Crusade appeal.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
